Note 3: In case of typos and or errors, the following information will be corrected or updated when information is found to be substantially correct.

SAC B-47 Bomb Wings were divided among the 2nd, 8th, and 15th Air Forces. Throughout their history several of the units were transferred not only from location to location but between the three Air Forces. The following is a list of B-47 equipped Bomb Wings and the squadrons that comprised them, their locations, commands and dates of assignment.
